

Inspiring kids to SURVIVE and THRIVE

#FINEISFANTASTIC

#SHIFTPERCEIVEDREALITY

#LITTLEPEOPLEDOINGHUGETHINGS

#COOLTOBEDIFFERENT

Bullied, insecure and dyslexic, as a child he believed he would not amount to much. Greg Bertish is a humanitarian, a charity campaigner and the founder of The Sharkspotter Program & The Little Optimist Trust. He is a multiple cardiac surgery survivor who went on to become a South African Champion athlete and he has helped to shift perceived reality! His stories and the lessons he teaches are inspiring and changing the lives of kids of all ages and in all walks of life.

Through Storytelling and FUN, The Little Optimist address's bullying in the most unique way and inspires kids to be empowered by their differences, to think out of the box, and to follow their dreams and passions!

To hear Greg's UNIQUE and INSPIRING talk, invite us to your school OR sponsor us to go to a marginalized school near you.

"Your presentation was excellent and your message is one that we can all reflect on and take to heart.

I have received so much positive feedback from both the boys and staff."

Johnathan – Vice Principal- Rondebosch Boys Primary

"You are a wonderful role model, and your talk was fun, accessible, powerful and inspirational."

J Baron, School Councillor
Pinelands High School

"Hi Greg, You did a talk at my daughter's school yesterday and she couldn't stop talking about it yesterday afternoon! Thanks for the difference you are making!"

- Irene Van Schalkwyk Kenridge Primary School parent

"Blessings to you and don't stop what you are doing....you are touching lives, paying it forward and making a huge difference and impact on lives." Parent at Clarendon Park Primary, P

To Book please contact us on: cara@thelittleoptimist.org www.thelittleoptimisttrust.org

